The Minnesota Music cafe in conjunction with Megabien Entertainment announce a special screening of the documentary "Funkytown" on Wednesday May 8th at The Minnesota Music Cafe. The Minnesota Music Cafe hosted the live music filming portion of this documentary back in September of 2012. Thus Megabien Entertainment is now ready to reveal the final version of this music documentary.

Cynthia Johnson, lead singer of the former Lipps Inc group and host of the TV series "Funkytown" will present the movie and host the evening's festivities. Joining her will be Billy Peterson . The two will also be performing live on stage with such other well known and respected Twin Cities artists such as Billy Peterson, Jellybean Johnson and the band JB & the Routine.

This Screening party of "Funkytown" is open to the public and doors open at @ 8:30pm . The cover charge is $10.00 and this event is sponsored by AVI Systems, New Castle Brown Ale Beer and The Minnesota Music Cafe. The Minnesota Music Cafe is located at 499 Payne Avenue in St. Paul.
