

Campbell's Quips: Mmm... Mmm... Good!

Written by Kam Williams

Cloves Campbell, Jr
The "NNPA Chairman" Interview

Cloves C. Campbell, Jr., is the Publisher of the Arizona Informant, a family owned and operated newspaper that provides an important voice for the African-American community in Arizona. This year it celebrates 42 years of publishing. Currently, he serves as Board Chair of the National Newspaper Publishers' Association (NNPA).

As a Phoenix native, his personal commitment and knowledge of the community in which he grew up shows throughout his work. Most recently, he served in the State House of Representatives for District 16 from 2007-2010 fulfilling duties on the Appropriations, Banking and Insurance, and House Ethics committees.

Campbell's Quips: Mmm... Mmm... Good!

Written by Kam Williams

...at
...very
...share?
...brother.