

SNAPSHOTS

Written by

Minnesota music lovers packed the Dakota Jazz Club for two capacity shows featuring neosoul/soul icon, Dwele. The two Nov. 11 performances marked the three time Grammy nominee's first trip to the Twin Cities in more than 5 years.

Brothers for The D - Dwele and singer, J Tate represented their hometown of Detroit during Dwele's recent performance at the Dakota

Not just a pretty face - Though known as a neosoul/soul heartthrob, Dwele is an accomplished musician who plays several instruments, including the trumpet.

SNAPSHOTS

Written by

of the hour came out into the crowd and

Die Dakea Robbins and Anika Robbins with Mr. "Find a Way" follow the first of two shows at

SNAPSHOTS

Written by

SNAPSHOTS

Written by

Anthony DuBose and Dwelton Spivey hang out after the show with music heads Anthony DuBose and

Harry Colbert (left) and Thee Urbane Life's Bianca