For more than 25 years, every Sunday and Monday, Dr. Mambo's Combo has been bringing the soul and funk to the Bunker's stage. On a recent Sunday the Combo was in rare form (meaning they were even better than their usual outstanding selves). Must have been the many stars who came to check them out -- and sit in. An Aesthetically Speaking photographer caught a few of the faces in the crowd.

Horn man, Walter Chancellor, Jr., showing off his cool at Bunker's. Known as one of the best area horn players, Chancellor sat in with the Combo a couple of Sundays ago.
