

"Tavis Smiley" enters Minneapolis late-night lineup

Written by

---

Beginning today, Monday, April 5, Minneapolis viewers will be able to watch Tavis Smiley's unique take on the headlines as he interviews top newsmakers and celebrities at a new timeslot.

"I'm really happy to be coming to TPT Life in late-night" says Tavis Smiley. "This gives us the opportunity to bring our mix of politics, culture and social issues to folks who enjoy tuning in at the end of the day."

The impressive and diverse lineup of guests scheduled for April includes:

David Simon – executive producer and head writer of "The Wire" on HBO and creator of the new series, "Treme" about post-Katrina New Orleans

Chris Rock – comedian, actor, producer and the star of the new film "Death at a Funeral"

Richard Clarke – former Special Advisor to the President for Cyber-Security and author of the new book, "The Cyber-War: The Next Threat to National Security and What to Do About It"

Mark Harmon – actor and star of the television show, "NCIS"

Anne Lamott – bestselling author of "Traveling Mercies: Thoughts on Faith" and the new novel, "Imperfect Birds"

Father Gregory Doyle – Jesuit priest and Founder/Executive Director of the youth organization Homeboy Industries

"Tavis Smiley" enters Minneapolis late-night lineup

Written by

---

"Tavis Smiley" continues to air in Minneapolis at 12:30 p.m. and 4:30 a.m., in addition to the new 11:30 p.m. timeslot. Check local listings for channel numbers and show times. See the full schedule for the week of April 5 at: www.pbs.org/tavis.