Early January, Acting Commissioner Dan Salomone announced the appointment of Matt Massman as Assistant Commissioner of Tax Policy for the Minnesota Department of Revenue.

For the past six years, Massman has served as lead fiscal analyst for the Minnesota State Senate, advising members on budgetary options in the tax and finance committees. Previously, Massman served as state and local tax policy director for the Department of Revenue. He advised the commissioner on a range of tax policy issues and assisted in developing the department's analytical capabilities across all tax types.

Massman graduated from Hamline University and received his Master of Arts in Public Administration from University of Wisconsin-Madison. Massman begins his new duties in January.
