MLK CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day Event Jan. 14

The Human Rights Commission and the Human Services Division of the City of Bloomington will sponsor Dr. Don Bartlette and his presentation, "My Journey Across Black America" in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day during lunch on Monday, January 14, 2013 at Creekside Community Center. Prior to presentation, watch his film, "Macaroni At Midnight," which shares his remarkable story growing up as a Native American child, living in poverty, experiencing issues such as racism, abuse, and struggles with his own disabilities. The film will show at 9:45 a.m. Following an 11:30 a.m. lunch and presentation. A question and answer session will follow presentation. The following are additional dates the film will be shown for free at Creekside Community Center: Wednesday, January 9 at 9:30 a.m. and Friday, January 11 at 1:00 p.m. This event does require a prepaid registration 3 days in advance. Meal cost is $0-3 for guests 60+ (NAPIS form required) and $6 for guests under the age of 60. If you would like more information or would like to make a reservation, visit or call Creekside Community Center 9801 Penn Ave. S., 952-563-4944, TTY 952-563-4933.
