Parents and their children are invited to hop on over to their local Cub Foods store Saturday, March 27 for a “meet and greet” with the Easter Bunny. Kids may enjoy free treats and special holiday activities, including a personal photo of themselves with the Easter Bunny. The Cub Foods Easter Party will take place Saturday, March 27, 2010 from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. at all Twin Cities Cub stores.

Cub4Kids Easter Party activities include:

- A 4” x 6” photo of each child with the Easter Bunny
- Free coloring books, toys and goodies; complimentary treats including bananas, strawberries, cookies and fruit punch

Cub Foods provides consumers with the freshest produce, widest selection and greatest value available today. In addition to innovative natural, ethnic and certified organic food sections, Cub stores offer shoppers added conveniences, such as in-store pharmacy and banking. Cub Foods was established in 1968 as one of the nation’s first discount grocery stores. The organization was purchased in 1980 by SUPERVALU and currently operates 71 stores located in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa.
