

Community dialogue explores cultural identity and spirituality

Written by

Wednesday, 28 April 2010 14:44

A discussion about family and cultural identity and spirituality takes place 5:30-7pm Wednesday, May 5, at University Outreach Research/Engagement Center (UROC), 2001 Plymouth Ave. N, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Psychologist Ted Thompson will talk about "Weaving the Fabric of Family Culture and Spirituality."

His talk examines:

- the many definitions and behaviors associated with "FAMILY"
- the cultural underpinnings of family, with spirituality at their core,
- the strengths which have enabled survival in the face of social persecution.

Refreshments will be served.

To RSVP please email Ady - ady@headwatersfoundation.org

For more information call Betty Emarita, 612-823-5193