

Singers, actors, dancers - CAP 21 Tisch School of the Arts hold pre-college audition workshop

Written by

Tuesday, 04 May 2010 13:27

Vernon Goodman, Director of Admissions & Recruitment at CAP 21 Tisch School of the Arts will be in Minneapolis on Wednesday, May 5th, at 4:00-6:00pm, for a FREE musical theatre, pre-college audition workshop, including a question and answer session. CAP 21 Tisch School of the Arts is a satellite of New York University. This workshop is for performers ages 15 – 19, and will be conducted at the Lundstrum Center for the Performing Arts (1617 N 2nd Street, Minneapolis, MN 55411). Students should come prepared to act, dance, and sing. Specifically, performers will be asked to sing the song “Can’t Stop the Beat” from the Broadway musical Hairspray. Call 612-521-2600 to make your reservation.

Tisch is one of the nation's leading centers of undergraduate and graduate study in the performing and cinematic arts, offering programs that incorporate state-of-the-art facilities, award-winning faculty members, internship opportunities with established professionals, and the incomparable artistic and cultural resources of New York City.

Lundstrum Center for the Performing Arts is proud to welcome Tisch to their facility, on Wednesday, May 5th from 4:00 – 6:00pm. This is an opportunity for performers who wish to pursue their craft as a profession, to ask questions and learn about how to advance in the business, and be considered for study at CAP 21 Tisch School of the Arts in New York City!

CAP 21 stands for Collaborative Arts Project into the 21st Century!

For more information about this wonderful, FREE learning experience, please call Lundstrum Center at 612-521-2600.