Intermedia Arts, 2822 Lyndale Av. S., Minneapolis, a Twin Cities based multidisciplinary, multicultural arts organization will launch its summer program season 4-7pm June 19th, with a Bar B Que Fest community celebration that features art making and a DJ dance party.

The event will showcase Intermedia Arts' new community spaces including the newest art-on-our-walls project, and introduce new staff members. Hands on activities for families include button-making and screen-printing, as well as the interactive gallery installation exhibit, the Storefront of Ideas.

Intermedia Arts thrives on pushing the boundaries and definitions of artistic excellence. From graffiti art to performance art to digital technology and spoken word, the agency works the community to unearth and enliven new and emerging artists and art forms.

Programs support the creation and presentation of art and challenge and explore the role of art in our lives.

Intermedia Arts seeks to build understanding among people through art. The work inspires people to make changes in their lives and communities by stimulating civic dialogue and by giving voice to the issues and experiences of underrepresented communities.
