Victor R.T. Wilson this summer was named Pastor of Glendale SDA Church, 1138 Glenwood Avenue in North Minneapolis. Pastor Wilson joined Glendale SDA Church this past July after serving as pastor since the fall of 2006 for three churches in what he termed Indiana's Jet-H district: Jeffersonville, IN, Evansville, IN and Terre Haute, IN under the direction of the Lake Region Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, headquartered in Chicago, IL.

Wilson was born in Chattanooga, TN, baptized just before the age of seven and while in middle school was made elder-in-training. He began preaching in high school.

Wilson attended Andrews University Theological Seminary in Berrien Springs, MI where he earned the Masters of Divinity degree and served as part of the Communications Department and Youth Sabbath School Teacher for the Niles Philadelphia SDA Church in Niles, MI.

"Pastor Wilson loves God and is a very spiritual leader and excellent teacher. He is interested and has been involved in media ministry which he hopes to bring to the Twin Cities very soon," said Liz Moore, Asst. Community Service Leader, Glendale SDA Church.

Wilson's wife, Devonnnett Wilson also holds a Master of Arts Degree in Youth Ministry from Andrews University. She and her husband have a special passion for reaching our youth. The couple has two children, Nia and "VJ".

Community members and visitors are welcome to Glendale SDA Church services or special programs. A Community Service Guest Day Program held last month honored community service volunteers was well attended.
