

Church Olympics brings together close to 30 churches, 2,500 participants

Written by
Friday, 26 July 2013 17:20

The Stairstep Foundation recently wrapped-up its 10th annual Church Olympics – a weeklong set of events designed to promote healthy living among the Twin Cities African-American population.

Church Olympics brings together close to 30 churches, 2,500 participants

Written by
Friday, 26 July 2013 17:20

As a sign of appreciation for the support of the community, the equivalent of a participation award was given to all participants who were involved in the event.

Church Olympics brings together close to 30 churches, 2,500 participants

Written by
Friday, 26 July 2013 17:20

Stairstep Fitness Center founded in 1992 with a mission of promoting the spirit of community

www.stairstep.org