Alecia Carter has been named Mrs. Saint Paul International 2011 at an event at the Greater Frogtown Community Development Corporation's Garden the end of August. Her official banner was presented by Mrs. Minnesota International State Director Allison Stravrakis, City of Saint Paul Environmental Policy Director Anne Hunt, Concordia College Executive Vice President, and Dean of Diversity Dr. Cheryl Chatman, State Auditor Rebecca Otto, and Ramsey County Commissioner Toni Carter.

Carter will represent the community at the 2011 Mrs. Minnesota Pageant on March 12-13, 2011 in St. Cloud, MN and compete for a grand prize package and the opportunity to represent Minnesota at the 2011 Mrs. International Pageant.

Alecia Carter is the wife of Melvin Carter III, and is an Occupational Therapist with the Saint Paul Public School District. She is the mother of two daughters, Maylena and Naomi.

The Mrs. International Pageant System recognizes women for their commitment to family, profession, and community stewardship. Throughout her year, the new Mrs. Saint Paul International will not only compete for the state crown, but she will also be available to speak on her platform - Eco-Friendly Living and Sustainability: A Unifying Issue for Minnesotans, make appearances and assist with non-profit and civic-oriented projects. To obtain more information about appearances or the Mrs. International System, contact the State office at (952) 432-6758.
